7.2 This Section is without prejudice to any international instrument or national legislation which does or may contain provisions of wider application.

10.3 In imposing a sentence of imprisonment, the panel shall deduct the time, if any, previously spent in detention due to an order of the panel or any other court in East Timor (for the same criminal conduct). The panel may deduct any time otherwise spent in detention in connection with the conduct (underlying the crime).

III. General Principles of Criminal Law

Section 11
Ne bis in idem

11.1 No person shall be tried before a panel established by the present regulation with respect to conduct (which formed the basis of crimes) for which the person has been convicted or acquitted by a panel.

11.2 No person shall be tried by another court (in East Timor) for a crime referred to in Sections 4 to 9 of the present regulation for which that person has already been convicted or acquitted by a panel.

11.3 No person who has been tried by another court for conduct also proscribed under Sections 4 to 9 of the present regulation shall be tried by a panel with respect to the same conduct unless the proceedings in the other court:

- (a) Were for the purpose of shielding the person concerned from criminal responsibility for crimes within the jurisdiction of the panel; or
- (b) Otherwise were not conducted independently or impartially in accordance with the norms of due process recognized by international law and were conducted in a manner which, in the circumstances, was inconsistent with an intent to bring the person concerned to justice.

Section 12
Nullum crimen sine lege

12.1 A person shall not be criminally responsible under the present regulation unless the conduct in question constitutes, at the time it takes place, a crime under international law or the laws of East Timor.

12.2 The definition of a crime shall be strictly construed and shall not be extended by analogy. In case of ambiguity, the definition shall be interpreted in favour of the person being investigated, prosecuted or convicted.

12.3 The present Section shall not affect the characterization of any conduct as criminal under principles and rules of international law independently of the present regulation.

Section 13
Nulla poena sine lege

A person convicted by a panel may be punished only in accordance with the present regulation.

Section 14
Individual criminal responsibility

14.1 The panels shall have jurisdiction over natural persons pursuant to the present regulation.

14.2 A person who commits a crime within the jurisdiction of the panels shall be individually responsible and liable for punishment in accordance with the present regulation.

14.3 In accordance with the present regulation, a person shall be criminally responsible and liable for punishment for a crime within the jurisdiction of the panels if that person:

- (a) commits such a crime, whether as an individual, jointly with another or through another person, regardless of whether that other person is criminally responsible;
- (b) orders, solicits or induces the commission of such a crime which in fact occurs or is attempted;
- (c) for the purpose of facilitating the commission of such a crime, aids, abets or otherwise assists in its commission or its attempted commission, including providing the means for its commission;
- (d) in any other way contributes to the commission or attempted commission of such a crime by a group of persons acting with a common purpose. Such contribution shall be intentional and shall either:
 - (i) be made with the aim of furthering the criminal activity or criminal purpose of the group, where such activity or purpose involves the commission of a crime within the jurisdiction of the panels; or

- (ii) be made in the knowledge of the intention of the group to commit the crime;
- (e) in respect of the crime of genocide, directly and publicly incites others to commit genocide;
- (f) attempts to commit such a crime by taking action that commences its execution by means of a substantial step, but the crime does not occur because of circumstances independent of the person's intentions. However, a person who abandons the effort to commit the crime or otherwise prevents the completion of the crime shall not be liable for punishment under the present regulation for the attempt to commit that crime if that person completely and voluntarily gave up the criminal purpose.

Section 15 Irrelevance of official capacity

15.1 The present regulation shall apply equally to all persons without any distinction based on official capacity. In particular, official capacity as a Head of State or Government, a member of a Government or parliament, an elected representative or a government official shall in no case exempt a person from criminal responsibility under the present regulation, nor shall it, in and of itself, constitute a ground for reduction of sentence.

15.2 Immunities or special procedural rules which may attach to the official capacity of a person, whether under national or international law, shall not bar the panels from exercising its jurisdiction over such a person.

Section 16 Responsibility of commanders and other superiors

In addition to other grounds of criminal responsibility under the present regulation for serious criminal offences referred to in Sections 4 to 7 of the present regulation, the fact that any of the acts referred to in the said Sections 4 to 7 was committed by a subordinate does not relieve his superior of criminal responsibility if he knew or had reason to know that the subordinate was about to commit such acts or had done so and the superior failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators thereof.

Section 17 Statute of limitations

17.1 The serious criminal offences under Section 10.1 (a), (b), (c) and (f) of UNTAET Regulation No. 2000/11 and under Sections 4 to 7 of the present regulation shall not be subject to any statute of limitations.

17.2 The serious criminal offences under Section 10.1 (d) to (e) of UNTAET Regulation No. 2000/11 and under Sections 8 to 9 of the present regulation shall be subject to applicable law.

Section 18
Mental element

18.1 A person shall be criminally responsible and liable for punishment for a crime within the jurisdiction of the panels only if the material elements are committed with intent and knowledge.

18.2 For the purposes of the present Section, a person has "intent" where:

- (a) In relation to conduct, that person means to engage in the conduct;
- (b) In relation to a consequence, that person means to cause that consequence or is aware that it will occur in the ordinary course of events.

18.3 For the purposes of the present Section, "knowledge" means awareness that a circumstance exists or a consequence will occur in the ordinary course of events. "Know" and "knowingly" shall be construed accordingly.

Section 19
Grounds for excluding criminal responsibility

19.1 A person shall not be criminally responsible if, at the time of that person's conduct:

- (a) the person suffers from a mental disease or defect that destroys that person's capacity to appreciate the unlawfulness or nature of his or her conduct, or capacity to control his or her conduct to conform to the requirements of law;
- (b) the person is in a state of intoxication that destroys that person's capacity to appreciate the unlawfulness or nature of his or her conduct, or capacity to control his or her conduct to conform to the requirements of law, unless the person has become voluntarily intoxicated under such circumstances that the person knew, or disregarded the risk, that, as a result of the intoxication, he or she was likely to engage in conduct constituting a crime within the jurisdiction of the panels;
- (c) the person acts reasonably to defend himself or herself or another person or, in the case of war crimes, property which is essential for the survival of the person or another person or property which is essential for accomplishing a military mission, against an imminent and unlawful use of force in a manner proportionate to the degree of danger to the person or the other person or property protected. The fact that the person was involved in a defensive operation conducted by forces shall not in itself constitute a ground for excluding criminal responsibility under this subparagraph;
- (d) the conduct which is alleged to constitute a crime within the jurisdiction of the panels has been caused by duress resulting from a threat of imminent death or of continuing or imminent serious bodily harm against that person or another person, and the person acts necessarily and reasonably to avoid this threat, provided that the person does not intend to cause a greater harm than the one sought to be avoided. Such a threat may either be:
 - (i) made by other persons; or
 - (ii) constituted by other circumstances beyond that person's control.

19.2 The panel shall determine the applicability of the grounds for excluding criminal responsibility provided for in the present regulation to the case before it.

19.3 At trial, the panel may consider a ground for excluding criminal responsibility other than those referred to in Section 19.1 of the present regulation where such a ground is derived from applicable law. The procedures relating to the consideration of such a ground shall be provided for in an UNTAET directive.

Section 20

Mistake of fact or mistake of law

20.1 A mistake of fact shall be a ground for excluding criminal responsibility only if it negates the mental element required by the crime.

20.2 A mistake of law as to whether a particular type of conduct is a crime within the jurisdiction of the panels shall not be a ground for excluding criminal responsibility. A mistake of law may, however, be a ground for excluding criminal responsibility if it negates the mental element required by such a crime, or as provided for in Section 21 of the present regulation.

Section 21

Superior orders and prescription of law

The fact that an accused person acted pursuant to an order of a Government or of a superior shall not relieve him of criminal responsibility, but may be considered in mitigation of punishment if a panel determines that justice so requires.

IV. Composition of the Panels and Procedure

Section 22

Composition of the Panels

22.1 In accordance with Sections 9 and 10.3 of UNTAET Regulation No. 2000/11 the panels in the District Court of Dili shall be composed of two international judges and one East Timorese judge.

22.2 In accordance with Section 15 of UNTAET Regulation No. 2000/11 the panels in the Court of Appeal in Dili shall be composed of two international judges and one East Timorese judge. In cases of special importance or gravity a panel of five judges composed of three international and two East Timorese judges may be established.

Section 23

23.1 The judges of the panels established within the District Court in Dili and the Court of Appeal in Dili shall be selected and appointed in accordance with UNTAET Regulation No. 1999/3, Section 10.3 of UNTAET Regulation No. 2000/11 and Sections 22 and 23 of the present regulation.

23.2 The judges shall be persons of high moral character, impartiality and integrity who possess the qualifications required in their respective countries for appointment to judicial offices. In the overall composition of the panels due account shall be taken of the experience of the judges in criminal law, international law, including international humanitarian law and human rights law.

V. Other Matters

Section 24

24.1 The panels shall take appropriate measures to protect the safety, physical and psychological well-being, dignity and privacy of victims and witnesses. In so doing, the panels shall have regard to all relevant factors, including age, gender, health and the nature of the crime, in particular, but not limited to, where the crime involves sexual or gender violence or violence against children.

24.2 Procedures regarding the protection of witnesses shall be elaborated in an UNTAET directive.

Section 25

Trust Fund

25.1 A Trust Fund may be established by decision of the Transitional Administrator in consultation with the National Consultative Council for the benefit of victims of crimes within the jurisdiction of the panels, and of the families of such victims.

25.2 The panels may order money and other property collected through fines, forfeiture, foreign donors or other means to be transferred to the Trust Fund.
